

Company Profile

Indisputable World Leader in Failure Analysis
Off-the-shelf Software.
A member of A.L.D. Group

FavoWeb Ltd. (www.favoweb.com), the youngest member of A.L.D. Group, exists since 2001 and has already supplied its Failure Reporting and Analysis Tool, FavoWeb™, to numerous customers with Lockheed Martin JSF (F-35) and Israel Defense Force leading the list. FavoWeb Ltd. encompasses Failure Reporting, Analysis and Corrective Actions Systems (FRACAS) knowledge gained by A.L.D. in 20 years of providing FRACAS solutions to the world leading companies.

FavoWeb Ltd. sees its mission in developing, delivering and supporting of off-the-shelf FRACAS solution combining easy organization-wide input access to data/information with powerful analytical capabilities enrooted in A.L.D.'s reputation as one of the world leaders in Reliability and Quality.

FavoWeb's approach to Reliability and Product/Process Improvement is founded on four main principles:

- Providing easy input and access to failure/event data;
- Turning data collection into organization-wide knowledge base ;
- Managing data, knowledge and failure analysis process in organizations ;
- Developing well-known and new methodologies for failure/event data trending and analysis

Implementation of this approach with the help of cutting-edge technology:

- web-based access;
- flexibility not requiring programming for customization;
- web-services for connectivity with company's software infrastructure

makes FavoWeb Ltd. more than a vendor of off-the-shelf FRACAS – FavoWeb Ltd. is a source of failure analysis and IT professionalism – a rare combination in the era of narrow specialization.

FavoWeb Ltd. has a young and highly motivated team with an already proven success record in support and implementation of unique FRACAS solutions for customers like Lockheed Martin, Israel Defense Force, Israel Aircraft Industries, Marconi Selenia Communications etc'. A.L.D.'s 20 years in Reliability, Quality and Product Assurance form the solid background for FavoWeb Ltd. product and services.
